Each year I enjoy designing a freebie for you. It's my small way of saying thank you for supporting my designs all year long. I hope you don't mind that the Bostons are front and center once again. They insist! Please have fun using any colors, thread, or fabric that you have and enjoy. The chart can be found at my website thescarlettthhouse.com under the Freebies tab. Help yourself to the others, too.

All of us here at The Scarlett House wish you warm Christmas wishes!

Shops, please feel free to distribute to your costumers if you'd like, but not for sales.
